

CONSIDER ATTITUDE IN MEXICAN CRISIS

WILSON AND BRYAN CONFER ON COMING ELECTION AND PO-SITION OF ENGLAND.

AWAIT ANNOUNCEMENT

State Department May Send Another Notice to Huerta Hinting At His Inability to Conduct Fair Election.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, Oct. 23.—Developments attending General Felix Diaz's attempt to campaign for the Mexican presidency and the latest turn in the situation between the United States and Great Britain over the latter's attitude toward Mexico engaged the attention of President Wilson and Secretary Bryan in conferences today. The disposition of all officials here to maintain absolute silence with regard to the inquiries by Ambassador Page at London indicated that the whole affair will be handled in the quiet realm of diplomacy and no expressions of policy were looked for on the subject either from London or Washington.

As the election of October 26th approaches the administration here is in a waiting mood. Huerta's attitude leads to the belief that another announcement from the American government pointing to the inability of his government to conduct a free and fair election may be expected.

Attitude in London. In the absence of any definite lead
from British official quarters, newspaper comment on the Mexican situation today was generally confined to brief paragraphs questioning the genuineness of the interview given by Sir Lionel Gordon, British minister to Mexico, in which he is said to have remarked that "the Washington government does not understand the situation in Mexico."
Most of the papers gave a special interview of the minister declaring that the Americans being nearer the spot are better able than Great Britain "where the shoe pinches."

The Pall Mall Gazette says: "We ought to recognize that British interests in Mexico are merely commercial, while those of the United States are national and are therefore paramount. The friendship of the United States is more important to Great Britain than any oil concession."

Monterey Surrenders.
Dallas, Tex., Oct. 23.—A dispatch to the Times-Herald from a reliable source on the Mexican border announced that constitutionalists had surrounded Monterey, Mexico, and expected to assault that city today. Monterey is the most important city in northern Mexico.

No Official Word.
London, Oct. 23.—No word has been heard here officially in regard to the alleged interview given by Sir Lionel Gordon, British minister to Mexico, in which he is said to have declared that the United States government takes exception to no action will be taken in this direction
unless the British government's attention is drawn to the matter.

Health Director's Circles Here Cannot Believe That a Man of the Prominence of Sir Lionel Gordon Publicly would criticize the policy of another government.

SUFFRAGETTE TORCH DESTROYS PROPERTY

Arson Squad in Evidence at Bristol University and Sports Pavilion Is Burned.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
London, Oct. 23.—An "arson squad"
of militant suffragettes today set fire
to and destroyed the sports pavilion of Bristol University. They left the usual tell-tale suffragette literature
scattered about the ruins.

The public prosecutor decided to day that he would not proceed against "General" Mrs. Flora Drummond who was taken ill in June last while proceedings were in progress against her for infringement of the malicious damage to property act. She underwent an operation and since has been ill continuously.

ASK DIVINE HELP TO DECIDE DEBATE

Members at General Convention of Episcopal Church Halt Debate to Offer Prayer for Guidance.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
New York, Oct. 23.—The house of deputies of the Protestant Episcopal church halted a spirited debate on church unity at today's session of the general convention to pray for divine guidance on the regular of the house. With all members standing or kneeling in silence the chairman offered a solemn prayer.

The debate continued for a time after the solemn invocation. The resolution placing the church for the first time in its history within the federal council of the churches of Christ in America was adopted.

BOXING PROMOTERS LOSING MONEY UNDER NEW LAW

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Fond du Lac, Oct. 23.—None of the boxing matches conducted in Wisconsin under the new heading law made a profit with the exception of those held in Milwaukee, it was said here today. The card last night with Gus Christie and Jack (Twin) Sullivan, in the finals, resulted in a loss of $500 to the promoters.

JUDGE BAENSCH PRESIDES
AT HISTORICAL MEETING

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Oct. 23.—Judge Emil Baensch of Manitowish presided at the meeting of the state historical society here this afternoon. President Coman of La Crosse was absent. Tonight the regular meeting will be held for the reading of papers. There will also be an address by Judge Walter M. Douglas of St.
Louis on Spanish rule in the upper Mississippi valley.

TEMPERANCE ISSUE DIVIDES CONFERENCE

Governor Baldwin And His Adherents Opposed to "Dry" Recommendations of Congregationalists.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Congregationalists.
Kansas City, Oct. 23.—Disagreement on the temperance question loomed at the national council of the Congregational churches here today
when Governor Baldwin of Kansas announced himself as opposed to the recommendations of the committee on temperance for an amendment to the federal constitution prohibiting the manufacture and sale of liquor within the United States. Governor Baldwin is said to have a substantial following. He contends such an amendment would be contrary to the whole spirit of our government.

"Such a change," said the governor, "would be contrary to the whole spirit of our government. It would have central power strength but limited in its sphere of influence. It was intended to leave the relations of man to man to be settled mainly by the general laws of the state. The Bible, which is our only authority, law could not be enforced in the large cities. I would provoke breaches of the law as unfortunate
as they are inevitable."

The scene of interest today shifted from the national council which held a short session this morning to the meeting of the home missionary society where most of the speakers
dwelt upon the miracle of the church drifting away from the common people and catering to the rich.
In this connection the delegates were warned that the future success of the church depends upon a revival of interest by the workingman and his family.

"The church must get back to the needs of the plain people or quit," declared Dr. Washington Gladden, of Columbus, Ohio, former moderator of Dr. Gladden some years ago came in to prominence when he challenged
the propriety of acceptance by the American Board of Foreign Missions
of a gift of $100,000 from John Rockefeller. The controversy which arose over this challenge brought in to popularity the phrase "tailed money."

"It is imperative that the church
awaken to a realization of its mission," said Dr. Gladden. "The church is working on the theory that its duty is to get people out of this world into heaven. Rather it should be engaged in christianizing the art industry, schools, business—all the activities of man."

"It has been given too much encouragement to individualism and not enough to brotherhood. The church must get away from the ancient idea of dogma and adapt itself to present day conditions."
was sounded by Oscar E. Maurer of the Center church, New Haven, Conn.
The reason for most of the city
churches failing in the last few years has been the lack of adaptability," said Dr. Maurer.

PLAN TO BLOCK VOTE ON SUFFRAGE ISSUE

State Club Women in Session at Sheboygan Will Claim That Matter Was Settled at Janesville Last Year.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Sheboygan, Oct. 23.—Should the question of Woman's suffrage come before the convention of the State Federation of Women's Clubs now in session in this city, a plan has been made by which Emily Montague Bishop will block the question by saying that last year at Janesville the convention voted in favor of it by 129 to 63.

At the morning session of the Wisconsin Federation of Women's Clubs
a report was read by Mrs. Pearl Mc-Donald of Wauwatosa, chairman of the economics committee, in line with her report, he following resolutions
were adopted:

Resolved, That the club women of the state be urged to become familiar with the works that is being done in home economics in the schools and to co-operate with the schools in enlarging the scope, raising the standards and emphasizing the political economy and social phases of the work.

Be it further resolved, That the Wisconsin Federation of Women's Club instruct home economics, public health, and legislative departments to co-operate with these departments of the general federation of women's clubs in trying to secure uniform state and national pure food laws and a uniform system of weights and measures.

The principal address this morning
was made by Emily Montague Bishop of New York.

F. HOPKINSON SMITH SEVENTY-FIVE TODAY

Noted as Engineer, Artist, and Author
—Built Foundation for Bartholdi Statue.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
New York, Oct. 23.—Francis Hopkinson Smith, one of the most remarkable geniuses this country has ever produced, noted as artist, author and engineer, celebrated the seventy-fifth anniversary of his birth today.

He was born in Danbury, October 23, 1838 and when quite young worked as a clerk in an iron works establishment. Later he was educated as mechanical engineer and became engineer and contractor. He built the government sea wall around Govnor's Island, New York, another at Tompkinsville, S. I.; the Race Rock light house off New London and the foundation for the Bartholdi statue of Liberty on Bedloe's Island, New York harbor. Later he became a landscape painter of great merit and a lecturer on art subjects. He traveled extensively and became noted as
the author of a large number of books, mostly fiction, and books of travel. In late years he has traveled a great deal in Europe and devoted himself almost exclusively to literary pursuits.

ARREST FIVE CROOKS FOR TRIPLE MURDER

Chicago Police Arrest Five for Robbing Grand Rapids Store and Murdering Three Clerks.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Chicago, Oct. 23.—Five persons declared by police to have been implicated in the triple murder incident to the robbery of the jewelry store of J.
J. Thompson of Grand Rapids, Mich.,
September 18th, were arrested here
today.

The prisoners are Roy Blackburn,
and his wife Rose, Denny Kleeman
and two others whose names for the time being were suppressed. Blackburn is said to have been identified by an employee of Thompson. The arrests were made in a west side rooming house.

The jewelry robbery occurred in the afternoon and netted the perpetrators a haul valued at $5,000.
Many persons were passing the store at the time. John A. Thompson, and Edward Smith, clerks in the store, were shot dead when they rushed to the assistance of Paul Townsend, a watch repairer, who refused to open the safe at the command of the robbers. Townsend was fatally wounded.

MAJORITY OF MINERS ARE STILL ENTOMBED

BETWEEN 200 AND 250 MEN HELD PRISONERS IN MINE AT DAW-SON, NEW MEXICO.

FEAR MANY ARE DEAD

But Fourteen Bodies and Twenty-three Living Men Taken From Shaft Since Explosion Yesterday.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Dawson, New Mexico, Oct. 23.—Between 193 and 243 men still were entombed in shaft No. 2 of the Stage Canon mine of Phelps-Dodge and company at seven this morning, more than twelve hours after the explosion, in the depth of the workings which closed all avenues of escape from poisonous gases which filled the mine.

Fourteen bodies were recovered
during the night. The twenty-three living victims of the disaster were found at the depth of a mile and taken out unconscious at 5:30 this morning.

Hope was held out that the great fans which were worked all night
would have clarified the air so that the trapped men might be found alive.
General Superintendent Dr. James
Douglas, of all of the Phelps-Dodge and company property, was reported hurrying here from Douglas, Ariz.
That a great loss of life is expected
was shown by the call of the coroners
of Trinidad and Denver for a big supply of coffins.

During the night's fight to reach
the entombed men an organization
for the care of the dead and dying
was perfected.

Rescued today, twelve of the foot of the air shaft through which it had been hoped that many miners might escape alive. Three living men and three dead were found at this point.
Major J. L. Kinney said that the rescuers did not expect to find a large number of men together as the miners were scattered at the time of the explosion.

JEWISH TRIAL TAKES NEW EVIDENCE TODAY

Charge of Murder of Christian Boy
By Ritualists Holds Attention of Kiev Court.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Kiev, Russia, Oct. 23.—When the trial of Mendel Beiliss for the murder of the Christian boy Yushinsky
in March, 1911, reopened this morning the prisoner's counsel called the attention of the presiding judge to the fact that although the court sat
yesterday from early in the morning till midnight the prisoner's name was not mentioned even once. The counsel asked the president to put this on record, and he consented to do so.

The newspaper, Kiev Kianon, returned to its attack on the trial of Beiliss today, calling it "a blind and gross blunder." At the conclusion of the article it said:

"When the quina passed a law enabling Golubef, the leader of the Black Hundred, arbitrarily to send Jews to prison, calling it a blind and gross blunder." At the conclusion of
the article it said:

MEXICANS SLAUGHTER RESIDENTS OF TOWN

Revolutionists Murder Fifty People

Village.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Mexico City, Oct. 23.—Revolutionists yesterday murdered a fraction of the population, numbering about fifty,
of the village of Choran Atzicuira in the state of Michoacan, while they were defending the village church against invaders. The villages fought until their ammunition was exhausted,
and then used machetes, stones and clubs to beat off their assailants, but they were eventually overcome and killed and the village was burned to the ground.

WISCONSIN LEADS IN GRAIN AND HAY

October Crop Report Indicates a Prosperous Year for Badger Farmers—Potatoes Slightly Damaged.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Oct. 23.—The Wisconsin farm crop report for October, issued by Secretary J. C. MacKenzie of the state board of agriculture, features the fact that Wisconsin is leading all other states in the production of grains and grasses. Favorable climatic conditions, and the fact that farmers are giving more attention to the selection of seed and preparation of the soil for planting and to cultural practices account for this advance. The corn crop has been particularly good. Monroe county reported the heaviest yield of corn in the county's history.

The average yield of wheat for the state is 19.2 bushels, the central and southern divisions showing a yield of 19.4 as against 18.7 for the northern section. The average yield of rye in the northern division is 17.9 bushels,
central division 17.5; southern division 18.2; general average for the state 17.9. The average yield per acre of barley for the state is 28.7
bushels, each division of the state showing about the same yield per acre. The yield of oats for the state is 32.2 bushels per acre, and the general average yield per acre for the entire state being 39.3 bushels. Shelled corn showed 38.1 bushels, buckwheat 15.8, flax 14.5, beans 15.9, peas 19.9.

Damage to Potatoes.
Blight and early frost damaged potatoes to a considerable extent in some of the larger potato producing counties. The average yield for the state is 130.4 bushels.

The yield in the principal tobacco producing counties is as follows: Dane county, 1,275 pounds; Vernon county, 1,150 pounds; Rock county,
1,100 pounds; Columbia county, 1,100 pounds; Crawford county, 975 pounds.
Cabbage yielded at an average of 8.1 tons per acre. The southern division of the state showed an average yield of 12.8 tons per acre of sugar beets. The average yield for the state is 11.5 tons. The average yield of alfalfa was 2.9 tons per acre, and of alfalfa 2.9 tons. The report shows that 27.9 per cent of the total corn acreage was cut for silage.

DEFENSE PREPARING ITS ARGUMENTS NOW

Mrs. Eaton's Lawyers Seek to Refute State's Testimony as to Cause of Death.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Plymouth, Oct. 23.—Today marked
the opening of the defense in the trial of Mrs. Jennie Mae Eaton for the murder of her husband, Rear Admiral Joseph C. Eaton.

There was no forenoon session,
court having adjourned yesterday until this afternoon in order to permit
the lawyers for the defense to get together their witnesses.

William A. Morse, chief counsel for Mrs. Eaton, delegated his assistant counsel Francis J. Geogan the task of outlining the jury the improvement
which will be introduced in an effort to disprove the government's contention that the admiral's death was due to poison given him by his wife.

The defense will occupy about three days in the presentation of evidence.
Several prominent naval officers who were acquainted with Admiral Eaton
during his active service are expected to testify as to his habits while in the navy. Among them it is understood will be Rear Admiral Charles E.
Clark, retired.

Attorney Morse said today that Mrs. Eaton was to be called as a witness.

TAXATION PROBLEMS WILL BE DISCUSSED

Governors of Several States, Tax Commissioners, and Economists Attend Buffalo Conference.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 23.—Governors of several states, tax commissioners, economists, university and college professors, and businessmen from many sections of the country are in attendance at the seventh annual conference of the National Tax Association, which opened its session here today and will remain in session until Saturday. Among the tax experts who have consented to deliver addresses at the conference are: E. B.
Byrnes, present chairman of the New York State Board of Tax Commissioners; ex-Judge R. J. Leboeuf, Adelbert Moon of Buffalo; J. B. Davis, United States Commissioner of Corporations; C. B. Pierce, Chairman of the New Jersey Special Tax Commission; State Tax Commissioner T.
E. Lyons of Wisconsin; D. M. Link of Indiana; J. Edgar Adams of Colorado, and C. M. Zander of Arizona. Professors Seligman of Columbia, Johnson of New York University, Raper
of the University of North Carolina, Lockhart of the Ohio State University, F. A. of the University of Illinois, Bullock of Harvard, and Fairchild of Yale; T. B. Paton, general counsel of the American Bankers' Association, Dr. R. H. Whitten, statistician of the New York Public Service Commission; S. D. Dutton, ex-Commissioner of the St. Paul Railway and W. W. Pollock of the Manufacturers' Appraisal Company. The headquarters of the conference are at the Hotel Inoquois.

INCREASED RETURNS ON CORPORATION TAX

STATE WILL COLLECT AT LEAST SEVEN PER CENT MORE
FROM THIS SOURCE
THIS YEAR.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Oct. 23.—Increased returns from corporations under the income tax law may reach 7 per cent more than last year. The tax is computed at the office of the state tax commissioner, and the rate are then certified to the county clerks. The tax rolls were certified today.

No attempt was made by the commission to compute the detailed returns of corporations before the rolls were certified to the county clerks. Even counties selected at random show an increase of 13 per cent as compared with last year. Ten counties outside of Milwaukee show an increase of 7 per cent. In Milwaukee county the returns from corporations have gone up 26.910 per cent.

MORE CARS NEEDED TO MOVE BEET CROP

Railroad Commission Investigates Complaint of Farmers Near Waukesha.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Oct. 23.—For the first time this year the railroad commission has been called upon to devote its efforts to the question of car shortage. So far the complaints have been from the farmers of the south of Waukesha, where the sugar beet growers claim that not a sufficiently large number of cars are furnished to carry the produce. One commissioner attending to all car shortage complaints at the situation has been relieved somewhat.
Usually at this time of year the shortage is due to the shipments of coal,
but the commission had coal dealers
ship early this year. The sugar beets are shipped in open cars and many of the cars of the "Soo" had been loaned to other lines.

RAILWAY COMPANY FILES SURETY BOND

Chicago and Wisconsin Valley Inter-

City of Madison.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Oct. 23.—The Chicago and Wisconsin Valley street Railway company, which proposes to build an interurban road from Portland to Madison and northward to Merrill, has filed its $50,000 surety bond with the city. The bond was tentatively accepted by Mayor Helm,
but before construction is started the company must deposit $10,155 in cash
as payment for the improvement of East Washington avenue, the principal thoroughfare, to be traversed by the road. This sum is promised by J. E. Jones, general manager, within a few days. The franchise calls for cars to operate in the city of Madison by January 1, 1914.

PRESIDENT REFUSES TO TALK POLICIES

With Newspaper Correspondents at Semi-Weekly Conference Today.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, D. C., October 23.—
At his usual semi-weekly conference with the newspaper correspondents today President Wilson for the first time declined to discuss foreign relations and asked to be excused from speaking of the attitude of Mexico situation.

The president's departure from his custom of speaking frankly on international affairs was regarded as deeply significant regarding the situation
caused by the attitude of Sir Lionel Gordon, British minister to Mexico, and Great Britain's attitude toward the Mexican situation generally.

KEHOE GETS $1,500 FROM GIBSON ESTATE

Nicholas Kehoe's claim against the estate of Dr. James Gibson has been allowed to the amount of $1,500, in the Rock county probate court. Kehoe sought to recover $5,000 from the estate for alleged malpractice on the part of the physician who treated him on Sept. 30, 1912, on which date
he suffered a broken or dislocated arm. Kehoe's action was filed in the probate court set forth that Gibson had treated him on the date of the injury and for several months afterward. He failed to recover the use of his right arm and made his claim against the estate in consequence. A settlement has since been reached and he will recover $1,500 as allowed by the court.

OWEN MAKES RULING ON COMMITMENT LAW

Attorney General Decides That New Statute Applies Only to Criminal Cases.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Ashland, Oct. 23.—Attorney General Owen of Madison in a letter received today by District Attorney Stanley Smith, makes clear the law
regarding commitment of persons requiring sheriffs to place their prisoners at work. The law directs that the wages resulting be paid to the prisoners' families. Because of several vague clauses in the measure it was not rigidly followed.

"It seems evident to me that the legislature, in using the term 'any offense,' had in mind criminal offenses,
and it is therefore my opinion that the provisions of Chapter 625, laws of 1913, have no application to persons charged with violating municipal ordinances."

A "TOUCHING" LETTER FROM POOR RUSSIAN WHO SEEKS FREEDOM

Old Spanish Fraud Appears Again Seeking Victims in Vain in Janesville.

Again the Russian banker sends word from a dungeon in the heart of Spain. This time his name is Serge Soloviet, "the criminal banker who eloped with five million rubles." Though an aristocrat by birth, he is perfectly willing to be rescued by a Janesville business man. The Russian offers a reward of $100,000 to regain $480,000. The Janesville man was touched by this fearful tale, though not in the manner desired by the famous old Spanish prisoner. The following is a copy of the letter received:

Sept. 10, 1913.

Dear Sir:

Although I know you only from good references of your honesty, my sad situation compels me to reveal to you an important affair in which you can procure a modest fortune, saving at the same time that of my darling daughter.

Before being imprisoned here I was established as a banker in Russia, as you will see by the criminal article about me of many English newspapers which have published my arrest in London.

I beseech you to help me to obtain a sum of $480,000 I have in America
and to come here to raise the sum of my baggage, paying to the Registrar of the Court the expenses of my trial, and recover my fortune containing a secret pocket where I have hidden the document indispensable to recover the said sum.

As a reward I will give up to you
the third part, viz: 150,000 dollars.
I can not receive your answer in the prison, but you must send a cablegram to a person of my confidence
who will deliver it to me.

Awaiting your cable to instruct you
in all my secrets, I am, Sir,
Yours truly,
SOLOVIEFF

First of all answer by cable, not by letter as follows:
Senior Urgulisi, Lista Telegraph,
Santander (Spain).

All right—Lyle.
The letter is accompanied by one of the "made to order" newspaper clippings which tell of the arrest of this poor banker. The country is flooded with similar letters which rival the old green good days and the gold brick scheme. About once a year similar appeals are received by Janesville men but little attention is paid to them as the game is so old that it is threadbare.

ELABORATE WEDDING IN TOWN OF FULTON

Hundred Thirty Guests Attend Marriage Ceremony for Miss Luella Post and Calvin West.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Fulton, Oct. 23.—One of the prettiest weddings of the autumn season was solemnized at eight o'clock Wednesday evening at the home of Mr.
and Mrs. William Post of Fulton township, when their daughter, Miss Luella Post, became the bride of Calvin West. One hundred and thirty guests were present.

Shortly before eight o'clock Mr.
Charles Raymond sang "Oh Promise Me," after which Mrs. Etta Huebell played the Mendelssohn wedding
march. Rev. Price of Bruce Wis., who read the marriage service, led the bride party. He was followed by the bridegroom and his attendants,
Lewis Stark and Louis Kilpatrick.

Then came the bride on her father's arm and the two bridesmaids, Misses Evelyn and Leona Post, her sisters.
Little Miss Lucile Mushel and Master
Ernest Granzow were the ribbon bearers, and little Miss Sarah Pierson and Master John Carrier were the ring bearers.

The bride was charmingly gowned
in white crepe de chene and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaids carried pink roses.

Following the ceremony a three course supper was served, with Mrs.
Bowerman of Janesville as caterer.
Music was furnished by the Misses Win, Lucile and Kathryn Culton of Edgerton.

The Post home was artistically decorated with autumn leaves, smilax,
and white carnations, and the tables
were decked with red and white carnations. The young couple received many beautiful gifts.

Guests from a distance were:
Mr. and Mrs. Louis West, parents of the groom, from Waupaca, Wis.; Mr.
and Mrs. Louis Mushel, Misses Florence and Alice Mushel and Frank Mushel of Jefferson; Elmer Kilpatrick, Stewart Reed and Mrs. Armstrong of Madison; Mrs. Charles Spike of Herold, Dakota; Rev. Price of Bruce Wis.; Lawrence Kramer of Janesville, and O. G. Coggins, Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. West will be at home to their host of friends after Nov. 15
on a farm here.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Howard of Trent, South Dakota, are visiting Mr.
and Mrs. A. J. Miller. Mrs. Miller
and Mrs. Howard are sisters.

A glance at the nicknames of many of the minor clubs seems to indicate that "Indians" is a very popular handle for baseball teams. The Newark International league team, the Paducah Kitty league team, the Savannah South Atlantic league team and the Oshkosh Wisconsin.

A punting genius has been uncovered at Yale. Easton, '17, is declared by the coaches to be the find of the season and they predict a wonderful future on the gridiron for the freshman candidate. It is expected that Easton's right boot will guide the way to many an '18 victory. During practice and scrimmages between the freshmen and varsity Easton has exhibited some wonderful football talent and on occasions has punted beautiful goals from the 40-yard line. All Yale declares him to be the football find of the fall.

When Leach Cross and Willie Ritchie get together some time at the end of this month Cross will have one advantage on the lightweight champ. Willie Ritchie requires four or five rounds in which to get started and a couple of more before he begins to show the best stuff he has. Leach, on the other hand, hits a pace in the first round that he maintains throughout the fight, and while he isn't as clever as the champ, there is always the chance that he'll slip over his well-known punch. Though Ritchie has had lots of training in the four-round prize bouts, he has reached the point in these later days where he is unable to do his best work till later on in the fight. His first four or five rounds are slow and uncertain. Cases for Willie and all the seventh or eighth he seldom hits his true stride. Here is where Cross has the bulge on him in their ten-round Colham go. Even though Cross is unable to walloo the champ or bruise him to any extent, his feverish activity from the first tap of the gong may win him a newspaper decision. Ritchie, realizing this, has suggested to his friends and trainers that he try a four or five round work-out just before the fight, warming up so that he may be able to start the real bout at his regular clip. This idea has been discouraged, however, for the reason that he might enter the ring in a perspiration and the delay in receiving instructions and the adjusting of gloves would stiffen him up so that he wouldn't be able to get a good start throughout the whole fight. Willie isn't entirely persuaded to this view and he may yet do the work-out just before the encounter.

Illinois league team all answer to the call of "Indians." Some warlike or belligerent or never-say-die suggestion it seems to have seized all of these different organizations.

Eddie Collins, says Muggsy McGraw, is the most valuable ball player in the world. Ty Cobb, Walter Johnson, Matty, Frank Baker—you could keep 'em all, says McGraw, if he could catch off Eddie Collins. Recently Muggsy came to bat with the following remarks:

"I want to go on record as saying that Collins is the greatest ball player in the world. He showed it in the world's series. Ty Cobb may mean more in the box office because of his ability as a drawing card, but Collins wins more ball games for a club, which is what counts in my mind. He made a great many plays in this series that the spectators in the stands may have missed, but which were very apparent to me. Besides his individual work, he keeps the club on edge and this for many of the other players. He is a steady and brilliant fielder, getting balls that no other second baseman would try for. He also is one of the fastest thinkers I have ever watched. Judging plays and executing them with great accuracy. Besides his fielding, he is easily the most dangerous hitter on the club, as is shown by his work in the series just closed. They may talk about Baker and the rest of them, but Collins is the most damaging in a pinch."

MOOSE ROLLER POLO TEAM OPENS SEASON WITH BIG VICTORY

Defeat Reichert's Racine All Stars by Four to Two Score After Hard Battle—Kilmer

The Janesville Moose roller polo team started the opening of the Trolley league at the rink last night against the Racine All Stars and downed their fast opponents by a four to two score. Janesville was forced to fight her hardest throughout the combat and it was only due to the sterling work of Corlew, that victory was brought to the Janesville team.

Every player on the Moose team played their positions well and after the first third, there was little doubt in the minds of the polo fans present that the Janesville team would down Reichert's five. Kilmer, first rush, proved too much for Racine and scored three of the goals that sent them down to defeat. Blunk, at second rush, played a great game, scored one goal and forming an important key in the teamwork of the Moose. He was in the thick of the fray every moment and swishing clubs held no fear for him. Schaefer, at center, proved the best man on the floor, in breaking up interferences and stopping a rush coming down the floor. Connelly, a halfback, played his position well and rarely did Racine have an open shot at the case. Corlew, at goal, undoubtedly saved Janesville from a defeat as he stopped the hard drives from Reichert and Bullette, like a stone wall and in the scrimmages in front of the goal he always managed to kick the ball to safety. Janesville showed good teamwork, but both teams were wild in goal shooting.

Reichert still remains the great individual star of last year, and his ing and trick plays troubling the home players considerably, but before he had eluded enough men going down the floor, to get an open shot, Schaefer or Connelly was waiting for him. The remainder of the team were star performers, but lacked the dash that Janesville showed when an opportunity for scoring presented itself. Bullette, who scored both of the visitors' goals, was a fast man on skates, but was well covered the greater part of the game.

In the first third Racine was the first to catch the ball. Bullette sending a hard shot close to the edge of the goal missing Corlew's foot by a bare inch. Janesville out rushed Racine and Blunk tied the score by kicking the ball into the net when Kilmer had shot the ball, bounding in front of the cage.

In the second third, Racine again scored this time by good team work, skirting the Moose defense and shoot-

THREE DAYS' REST FOR LOCAL HIGHS

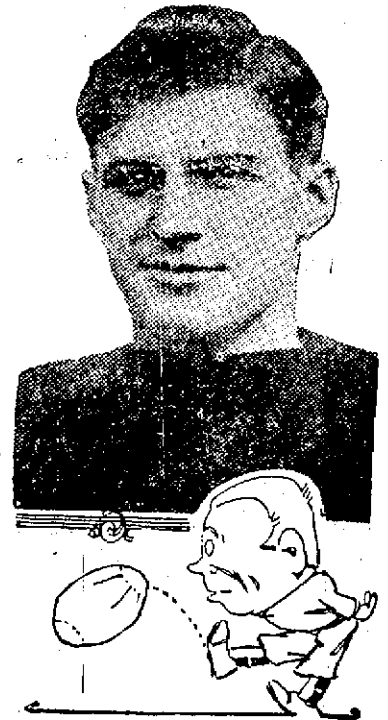

Light Signal Drills to Compose Remainder of Week's Practice—Line to Be Heavy Saturday.

No more scrimmage, is the order for the remainder of the week's work for the local highs, preliminary to their combat with the Beloit high school eleven Saturday. Light signal drills will be held every afternoon, and after supper, to perfect the eleven in smooching up their plays, which have been more or less ragged for the past week.

Stewart ran at quarter yesterday, Hayes being shifted to right end in Stewart's place. This change works well, but it is thought that Hayes will pilot the team at the pivot position against Beloit. Stewart is strong at right end, and is comparatively new at quarter, while Hayes has found himself accustomed to his former position better than at end.

The line Saturday will average about 155 pounds. The team is well balanced, each extremity being filled by competent men, with the backfield shifted so as to meet any offense Beloit might spring on the locals. Atwood will play at left halfback, with Dearborn at the other half. Dalton is expected to shine Saturday as fullback. He is in the pink of condition for the contest, and if he plays as he did at Freeport, there is a big chance for a victory. Atwood starred at

GETTING READY FOR SEASON'S BIG GAME

Captain Gilchrist.

Under the able direction of Captain Gilchrist, and backed up by Coach J. A. Gilchrist is a third-year man and plays right end on the navy team.

GETTING in touch with the shooting fraternity all over the country, as we do, we find a very considerable number of Remington-UMC users who want a Remington-UMC slide action repeater in a high power model—one heavy enough for practically any type of game that is found on this continent.

The answer to this demand is the new Remington-UMC High Power Slide Action Repeating Rifle. During the few months these rifles have been on the market, several hundred of them have been put into use. The testimony of the owners is that they are emphatically a success. Your Remington-UMC dealer has these repeating rifles in stock or will get you one. THE MEXICAN SITUATION.

With the announcement that Great Britain will recognize the Huerta government in Mexico and the chances that all of the great foreign powers will follow the lead, the question of where America will come in, is just now significant. From present indications, the United States, separated only by an imaginary line, will be trailing along at the tail end of the procession. Who is responsible for these humiliating conditions?

This is the question which will interest the American people for some time to come, and as the administration in power is held accountable for panic, and all other national mishaps, so in this case, our pedagogic president and his fantastic secretary of state will come in for a full measure of censure.

The Mexican on his native heath is not much of a scholar, and not always a gentleman. The ways of the scholar and the gentleman, do not always appeal to him, and when our gentlemanly president and his secretary of state said to him, "Now quit your fighting; go home and wash up and get ready for a peaceable election," he said, "Nay! Nay!"

The Mexican campus is a trifle larger than the one at Princeton, and a little more difficult to control than the Washington contingency, which, by the way, is chafing under the color, and inclined to rebel.

Huerta, at the present time, is all there is of the Mexican government. He is the dictator in fact and only lacks the title which is now conferred by the recognition of Great Britain. Under present conditions it is a pretty good country for the Americans to let alone.

With Canada on one side, and Mexico on the other, and England in control of both, our patriots at Washington will have plenty of time to continue the work of home regulation. To be sure we have the Philippines left, and a good-sized equity in the Panama canal, both valuable assets, but not very attractive for places of abode. We are also possessors of high ideals, and that ought to help some.

PEDAGOGIC TACTICS.

The Washington correspondent of the Chicago Inter Ocean, sizes up the Washington situation correctly in the following news story:

"President Wilson has put an end to all talk of recess of either house unless the president should consent to an adjournment sine die of the two houses of congress. To this President Wilson will not agree."

"The president is making no headway because he knows nothing about legislative methods," said Representative Mann. "Keeping congress here on a wild threat that the currency bill must become a law before he will permit it to adjourn has not helped matters at all."

"There is no chance of the present passage of the bill, and the president knows it."

"Were he willing to make terms, I think he could obtain a unanimous consent agreement in the senate under which the banking and currency committee would report out the bill on Dec. 1, the first day of the regular session, and the measure would at once be made the unfinished business of the senate, to be pushed to final enactment as quickly as possible. Even at that I doubt if it would be possible to write it into law before February."

"But if the president forces congress to remain in Washington straight through into the regular session, he will find that it will take until next June to pass the bill."

"All this is true because the president has no knowledge of legislative proceedings. What little he has has been gained by experience with the council of a college whom he told what to do, the New Jersey legislature which did what he ordered it to do, and the passage of the tariff bill which no one undertook to stop and yet it took him longer to pass this law than had ever been required for a tariff law before."

President Wilson treats the two houses of congress like a lot of school boys. They have been held in extra session now for six months, and very naturally resent this sort of dictation. There is no urgent demand for the passage of the new banking bill, and if there was the measure is altogether too important for hasty action."

The welfare of the nation is of much greater concern than the whim of a theoretical president, stimulated by the advice of his secretary of state who has not yet recovered from his free silver mania. It is fortunate for the nation that we still have a conservative element in both houses of congress. This sort of a balance wheel is needed at the present time."

It is now stated that Senator La Follette traded his vote on the tariff measure with the democratic majority in the senate for the majority support of the seamen's bill which he is advocating. Thus far the affairs of the nation passed from pillar to post and the laws passed, and still the people wonder.

Enterprising press agents for New York City announce that one of the new innovations in Gotham is a special bar for society women who want drinks mixed to match their gowns and eat freely of free lunch while powdering their noses to hide the whisky bloom. If this is true of New York, even the smell of the Chicago stock yards is rare perfume.

Roosevelt has arrived in Brazil and has been received with military honors. Perhaps he has forgotten all about the part the colored troopers of the Ninth cavalry played in his wonderful charge up San Juan hill back in the days of Ninety Eight.

Why not have an agricultural director for Rock county? The cost is not so great that it would be prohibitive and the benefits to be derived would be infinite and far-reaching in their actual results. It is not an experiment but a tried institution and it is up to the board of supervisors to decide on the matter.

Apparently the weather man forgot all about the old-time custom of Indian summer this fall, but perhaps he will hand out a few samples a trifle later when there ought to be good sleighing and skating. You never can tell what is coming since that tariff bill was passed and the currency measure is bothering the heads of congress.

Probably, this winter, our old friend Connie Mack will not have to worry about where the next month's rent is coming from.

Hon. Bill Sulzer may still look like Henry Clay, but just now he doesn't feel like him, unless it is the cigar kind that has gone out.

The United States can easily afford to entertain Mrs. Paikshur for a time, if only as an act of friendship for Great Britain.

Of course, if Senor Huerta wishes to leave no room for doubt as to the nature of that election, he cannot do better than run it himself.

With Joseph G. Cannon and William Lorimer both talking of seeking office, the state of Illinois is again on the map.

Vincent Astor will be able to keep the wolf away from the door a little while longer. Somebody has left him a legacy of $1,500.

Anyhow, it was just as easy for Congressman Hobson to declare war on Chairman Underwood as it was for him to declare war on Japan.

The latest idea of luck in New York is to get to see a play before the police stop it.

Ex-Ambassador Wilson's serious doubts as to Secretary Bryan's ability sounds just a little trite at this time.

This talk of cutting Mexico in two should be stopped. One Mexico is enough.

And to think of the headache that is in store for Huerta.

DEBATE QUESTION IS DECIDED UPON

Topic Submitted to Local High School by Beloit College Authorities Accepted by Prin. Buell.

Supt. H. C. Buell of the local high school has decided upon the question for debate this year. A few days ago, Beloit College authorities submitted one question to the high schools who were in the league last year, and as far as can be learned, this question is going to be the one to be discussed during the coming winter. The question reads, "Resolved: That the literary test is the desirable method of further restricting immigration into the United States. This topic is an old one, but is practical even up to the present day."

Last year the Janesville high school won the championship of the league, and while there are but two men in school who were on last year's two teams, it is generally felt that the local school will be in the running again. The question is liked by the majority of the students who are to try for a place on the trio this year. Announcements have been made by the college that only one team will represent each school this year. Principal Buell will, however, have one team bucked up on either side of the question, so that they will be well prepared when the crucial contests come.

NOTICE. Notice is hereby given to the policy holders of the Tornado Department of the Mutual Fire Insurance Co. of La Prairie and adjoining towns, that the directors have found it necessary to levy an assessment of four mills on the dollar. This amount must be paid on or before Dec. 20, 1913.

BOOSTERS TO COVER NINETY MILES TODAY

ELEVEN MACHINES LEAVE THIS MORNING FOR BRODHEAD, MONROE AND EVANSVILLE.

INTEREST INCREASED

Fifty Compose Today's Party, Who Will Stop At Monroe For Dinner—Machines Are Scarce.

Eleven machines, carrying about fifty Janesville Boosters, left here this morning on the second day's trip, bound for the western part of the state. They will make nine stops today, covering more than ninety miles. The party departed at ten-thirty for Hanover, from where they will make the following stops during the day: Orfordville, Brodhead, Juda, Monroe, Albany, Evansville, Brooklyn and Footville.

Yesterday's trip was most successful, considering the cool riding, but the interest shown today was far more intense. Close to seventy-five men gathered around Amersph's store, the starting place, this morning in hopes of going, but the cars were somewhat scarce. Eleven band men helped to make up the party, while business men composed the remainder of the group.

The cars they departed this morning, and the occupants of each car are as follows:

Pilot car, No. 1, driven by Amos Rehberg. Occupants, Ed Amerphol, Joe Connors and F. E. Lane.

Car No. 2, driven by James F. Field. Occupants, Lyman Morse, Harry Garbutt, S. S. Soule and Will Drummond.

Car No. 3, driven by Bohman. Occupants, Harry Wemple and three band men.

Car No. 4, driven by Malcolm Jeffries. Occupants, E. R. Terwilliger and two band men.

Car No. 5, driven by Frank Hayes. Occupants, Thomas Murphy, John Henderson and F. J. Baker.

Car No. 6, driven by Harry Bliss. Occupants, Mayor Fathers, F. W. Zimmerman, William McNeil and E. L. Howard.

Car No. 7, driven by P. H. Korst. Occupants, four band men.

Car No. 8, driven by Towle Lovejoy. Occupants, Harry Kemerer.

Car No. 9, driven by John Lee. Occupants, Morrell Cleveland and three band men.

Car No. 10, driven by Mikkelsen. Occupants, V. P. Richardson, Fred Flaherty, C. S. Putnam and D. W. Watt.

Car No. 11, driven by Valentine J. Weber. Occupants, E. H. Connell, E. T. Fish, R. M. Bostwick, and James McGiffin.

JUVENILE OFFENDER IS GIVEN LECTURE

Judge Maxfield Has First Case Under Newly Organized Court—Determines Method of Handling Cases.

A small boy about twelve years of age was the first offender to come before Judge Maxfield in the newly organized juvenile court. The youngster was brought up this morning by Trust Officer Burham who explained that the boy had caused the school authorities not a little trouble by his inclination to escape from the rigors of school work and discipline.

The lad was given a heart-to-heart talk by Judge Maxfield and was allowed to go on his promise to report to the court after school this afternoon bringing with him two other boys who have been causing some trouble. Judge Maxfield expects to enlist the boys on his side in an attempt to clear the truancy and other offenses such as breaking windows and annoyances which are being generally complained of throughout the city.

"Truancy constitutes an offense for which a boy may be sent to the reform school," said Judge Maxfield in discussing the juvenile court situation, "but I am not in favor of sending a boy away on his first offense unless it is too flagrant. Mr. Maxfield is working out a definite plan of dealing with the youngsters brought before him and contemplates no trouble in correcting many of the evils which are now reported to be current."

If the boys can't have the use of the city parks as a place to play football and other games, then a vacant lot or some provision should be made so that they can be off the streets, was one contention which Mr. Maxfield advanced.

Man's Seven Faults. A magazine called Paris Taste asked its women readers recently to vote on the seven worst faults of the modern young man, and publishes the replies. Egotism gets 10,014 votes, laziness and self-sufficiency run a dead heat with 7,409 votes, and fast living, gambling, intemperance and abuse of sport vary from 5,450 to 5,000 votes. Foolishness came last in the list.

Blue Monday.

In Bavaria and some other parts of Europe the Monday before Lent was at one time known as Blue Monday. The churches were decorated with blue, and the day was kept as a holiday by classes whose ordinary avocation required them to labor on Sunday. As this led to violent disturbances the custom was legally abolished.

Tree Dispersal Water.

On one of the Canary islands there is a tree which dispels from its branches actual rain to such an extent that a cistern placed at its base is never unfilled. This tree grows in one of the driest islands, through which no water ever flows. The branches of the trees are a cloud that changes into moisture frequently and sheds clear water.

DR. LAUGHLIN WILL DELIVER FAREWELL SERMON ON SUNDAY

Presbyterian Pastor Expresses Appreciation for Courtesies During His Eight Years' Service.

On Sunday next Dr. J. W. Laughlin will deliver a farewell sermon as pastor of the Presbyterian church in this city. In a letter to the Gazette he expresses his appreciation of courtesies extended by the paper and of the sympathy and co-operation which he has received from citizens generally during his service of eight years in Janesville. Dr. and Mrs. Laughlin have both made many friends in this city inside and outside the Presbyterian congregation and it is with genuine regret that they realize that they will no longer be leaders in the life of the community. Following is Dr. Laughlin's letter.

"Editor of the Gazette: It will be my last day in the Presbyterian pulpit of this city. I desire before taking my final leave, to express my appreciation of which I have received from the Gazette since I came to the city. It is not often that one can take issue with a daily paper; have a part in the social and political life of the city, and still retain good standing in the friendly heart of the editor. But since my coming I have had the most cordial courtesy on the part of the Gazette for which I am heartily thankful.

"Allow me also at this time to express through the Gazette my appreciation of the sympathy and the patience which the people generally have had for my work in the city. I shall cherish always fondest memories of the many, many people who have expressed to me in warmest terms their interest in the work I have tried to do.

"I will preach next Sunday morning from the same text I preached four years ago when I came to a candidate for the pulpit. I will preach in the evening from the same text I used at a union meeting at the Baptist church on the evening of my first day in Janesville.

"It is interesting to see as I look over my notes, how closely I have adhered during my ministry here, to the truths which I emphasized the first day I was in the city."

J. W. LAUGHLIN."

THINK HANDKERCHIEF MYSTERY IS A HOAX

Police Take No Stock in Writing Found on Cloth Stating Girl is in Hands of Gypsies.

Janesville police are inclined to believe that there is no mystery surrounding the discovery of a white handkerchief about a stone upon which is written in pencil the message, "Help, I am in the hands of some gypsies," and signed, "Miss Belmont." Below is written, "Are you way to Milwaukee," and in one corner, "I was named Mary." The handkerchief was found by Mr. Oas, employed at the Ambrose boiler factory, on the river road near the stone quarry two miles north of the city. He was returning to town after completing some work in the quarry.

The cloth was turned over to the police who made an investigation, but they were unable to find any trace of gypsies who had passed over the road recently, nor had they heard of any missing child. Chief Hanson declared that he believed the thing was a hoax, probably being the prank of some would-be humorist. There was no date on the handkerchief and there is no telling how long it has laid on the side of the road.

Officials Here: A. T. Pierpont, general freight agent; W. E. Frendler, general agent for the freight department; C. W. Sweeney, traveling freight agent, and M. P. Thurber, division superintendent, all connected with the C. M. & St. Paul railway, were visitors in the city yesterday.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Dr. J. C. Kennedy & Co., Toledo, Ohio.

PRETTY WEDDING WAS HELD LAST EVENING

Miss Lina Gehri United in Marriage to Lewis Valentine Michael at Trinity Church.

Miss Lina Gehri and Lewis Valentine Michael were united in marriage at Trinity church at eight o'clock Wednesday evening, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. W. Chester Kirk of Milwaukee. Mrs. Mary E. Doty presided at the organ and rendered several appropriate selections before and at the close of service.

Promptly at eight o'clock, to the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin the bride proceeded up the aisle of the church, supported by her father and attended by her sister, Mrs. C. Spaulding, as matron of honor, and her bridesmaid, Miss Elizabeth Green. They were met at the entrance of the choir by the groom and William Morrissey, who acted as best man. Little Reva Michael was the ring bearer for the ceremony. After the betrothal the bridal party proceeded to the altar rail, where the bride was given away by her father, the nuptial vows were exchanged and the words pronounced which made them man and wife.

The bride was attired in a white net tunic over white satin, and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. The matron of honor and the bridesmaid carried flowers harmonizing with their cream-colored gowns.

After the ceremony an elaborate dinner was served to the many guests at the home of the bride. Following the dinner a dance in honor of the happy couple was given at a local hall by Mr. and Mrs. Teubert.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael left Thursday morning for an extended trip through the west and other places they are to be at home in Janesville after December 1st.

BELOIT RAISES $100,000 FOR Y. M. C. A. IN 7 DAYS

Bells Ring Out News That Money Has Been Pledged Shortly Before Midnight Last Night.

Shortly before midnight last night bells in Beloit tolled out the news that the $100,000 for a Y. M. C. A. had finally been pledged in the seven days allotted for the task. A big meeting at the Methodist church was held last evening in an effort to raise the last $7,500 needed. It was a most exciting time and when the last of the pledges had been announced shortly after eleven-thirty more than the required amount had been subscribed. Appleton will conduct a similar campaign this fall.

REVENGE

By GEORGE FITCH, Author of "At Good Old Siwash."

Revenge is the process of making an enemy feel as bad as he has made you feel.

In other words, Revenge is the business of paying back trouble. However, it is not a very business-like process, because the Revenger is never satisfied with paying back the exact amount. He would much rather pay double. In fact, the man who goes into the wholesale and retail revenge business always tries to charge himself 200 per cent interest annually. If a man gave him a black eye a year ago he hopes this year to give said man two black eyes, a scrambled ear and a pancake nose.

Revenge is a difficult business and requires a good memory. When a man goes into the Revenge business he first accumulates an enemy and then waits to pay his enemy back, uttering a low hissing sound meanwhile, whenever he thinks of him.

Sometimes he hisses for years before he gets a chance to place his heel on his enemy's caved-in wishbone and exclaims, "Ha, R-r-revenge!" But waiting is part of the game. When a man has corded up eight or ten enemies and is saving a good dose of the same for each of them he has little time to do anything but wait and hiss. The world is, in fact, afflicted with a large number of citizens who haven't done anything but wait for Revenge for years.

The American Indian, when discovered, was a stalwart, agile man with a good mind and fine prospects. But Revenge was his specialty. He never forgot a wrong, and he always paid back the doer. Consequently while the American settler was raising corn, the American Indian was crawling through the underbrush on his elbows and knees trying to denude the head of some other Indian, who had called him a bad word seventeen years ago. This is partially why the American settler now runs the world while the American Indian toddles up to the agency once a week for beef, and cut no figure whatever in the election returns.

Some men's memories are so bad that they cannot do anything in the Revenge line at all. They are forever designing a horrid fate for some enemy and then mislaying his name. These men are fortunate indeed. If only a passion for Revenge was always accompanied by a bad memory, the mortality statistics of this land would come down on the run.

VIRGINIA EQUAL SUFFRAGE LEAGUE IS IN SESSION

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Lynchburg, Va., Oct. 23.—The most vital matter which will come up before the annual state convention of the Virginia Equal Suffrage League, which opened its two-days' session here today with a large attendance, will be the campaign proposed to be waged before the general assembly in the interest of equal suffrage. WILL DEMOCRATS PAY FOR TARIFF VOTE BY SENATOR LA FOLLETTE

Chicago Tribune Prints Dispatch
From Washington That Deal Was Made With This
in View.

This afternoon the vote on Senator Robert M. La Follette's Seamen bill will be taken in the United States senate. The Chicago Tribune prints the following story under a Washington date line which may explain the situation:

A curious illustration of "how legislation is made" is furnished by the decision of senate Democrats to support the La Follette seamen's bill now pending in the senate.

It appears the Democrats are behind Senator La Follette in this matter as the result of an agreement with him before the tariff bill was passed.

Recognizing that if La Follette voted for the tariff bill they would receive an endorsement of great political value, the Democratic leaders approached him and suggested if he would vote for the measure they would be disposed to assist him in getting through such legislation as he desired, which was in contravention of the Baltimore platform.

La Follette replied, according to the gossip at the capitol, that he would support a tariff measure reasonably satisfactory in character. He did so, and when the seamen's bill came up demanded his "round of flesh."

Has an ulterior motive?
It is claimed La Follette is anxious to get through the seamen's bill in part because of his desire to punish a shipping company of Milwaukee which has opposed him in Wisconsin politics. Whether this is true or not, it is a fact that many of the lake shipping companies are vigorously opposed to the La Follette bill, and that the senators from states bordering the lakes have been deluged with protests against the measure.

As a result some of the Democrats, notably James Hamilton Lewis, are greatly embarrassed. They feel they must stand by the agreement made with La Follette, which was ratified by the Democratic caucus in the way of endorsement of the La Follette bill. If it were not that the party is pledged there is no doubt Lewis and others would refuse to follow the Wisconsin man's lead.

Burton Calls Bill Insult.
That the bill would repeal or annul many treaties with foreign governments "in a way that is almost an insult" to certain countries was contended by Senator Burton of Ohio in the senate today.

The senator's statements were made after foreign protests against the bill had been informally considered earlier in the day by the senate committee on foreign relations.

Germany, Great Britain, France and Belgium have made representations urging that the United States ought not to act upon any proposed shipping regulations or safety-at-sea requirements until after the international maritime conference is held at London on Nov. 12.

Conference to Take Up Questions.
The London conference will take up general questions of safety appliances, the manning of lifeboats, the efficiency of crews, prevention of fire, and like subjects.

Senator Burton said it had been called chiefly as the result of the activities of the United and that this country should not now take hasty action that could practically "frighten the nations of the world."

He declared the provision of the bill regarding foreign ships to pay their sailors one-half the wages due them when in American ports and opening the courts of the United States to foreigners was in direct contravention of treaty rights.

DIED EARLY THIS MORNING AT HOME

Mrs. Lucinda Humphrey Is Called After Brief Illness—Was 83 Years of Age.

Mrs. Lucinda Davis Humphrey passed away this morning at her home, 818 St. Mary's avenue at four-fifteen, following an illness of but a few weeks' duration. She had, however, been failing for some time past.

Mrs. Humphrey was born in Shenandoah, near Auburn, New York, February 26th, 1830. Her mother died when she was but eight years old. At the age of fourteen, she was adopted into the family of Rev. E. Brown, and she lived until she had reached the age of twenty-one. She then moved to Adrian, Michigan, where she was married to Maillon M. Humphrey on August 2, 1852.

In 1857 they came to Rock county, and settled in Emerald Grove. In 1882 they moved to Waterloo, Wis., and lived there until 1892, when they moved to this city. Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in 1902, and all their children were with them. Mr. Humphrey died in 1905, and since that time, a son, Frank and wife, have cared for her in their home.

A member of the Methodist church for many years, she was always ready to do some act of kindness to her neighbors. She was the mother of nine children, four of whom died in the past.

The five surviving are, Emory B. Humphrey of Sharon; J. Nelson Humphrey of Whitewater; Sohby A. Caradine of Monroe; Harry H. Humphrey of Tutuila, Samoa, and Frank O. Humphrey of this city.

Funeral services will be held from her late residence, Sunday afternoon at one-thirty o'clock. Interment will take place at Emerald Grove.

Mary Katherine Sheridan.
The funeral of Mary Katherine Sheridan, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sheridan of 302 South Academy street, was held from St. Mary's church this morning at nine o'clock and was largely attended.

The pupils of the second grade of the Catholic school of which Katherine was a member, attended in body and the many beautiful floral emblems bore mute testimony to how well the little girl was thought of. Although but just past her ninth birthday, she showed a faith and brave spirit through her illness that would rarely be found in one of her tender years.

Her end came suddenly, and to the parents, who have been called upon to give to the one who gave her their life, the sympathy of their many friends is extended.

Those honored as pall bearers were: Leo Henning, George Steed, Thomas Cassaday, Thomas Jerome, Sheridan, Frank Deaning. Burial was at Mt. Olivet cemetery.

Frank Alden, Jr.
Funeral services for the late Frank Alden, Jr., who was killed instantly Tuesday evening, were held this afternoon at one-thirty from the home, 253 South Franklin street. Rev. T. D. Williams of the Carroll M. E. church officiating. Interment was in Oak Hill cemetery.

POLE CARRYING ELECTRIC WIRES COMES NEAR FALLING
Derrick on Bridge Breaks Guy Wire Which Allows Heavy Pole on West Side to Sag Precariously.

The heavy pole carrying electric wires and located at the west end of the Milwaukee street bridge in front of the Howard dry goods store, nearly toppled over early last evening when the derrick on the bridge went away the supporting guy wire, allowing the pole to sag precariously. It hung at an angle of forty-five degrees, threatening to drop at any moment, but was finally propped up. It started to fall into the street, thus preventing a broken wall and a possible fire in the buildings on the south side of the street. Linemen were busy today taking down the wires and repairing the broken connections.

The Evening Chit-Chat
BY RUTH CAMERON

A RAINY DAY.

LAST summer we read a great deal in the newspapers about the injury to the crops from lack of rain, but there was one effect of the drought which somehow failed to appear in the headlines. And that was the mental suffering of humanity for lack of an occasional rainy day.

Is there any more restful and tranquilizing experience after a long stretch of uninterrupted sunshine, then to awake in the morning to the music of the steady drip of rain outside the window and the gratefully subdued, cheerful melancholy light of a rainy morning?

In the first place, there is such a luxurious sense of indefinite duration about a rainy day. It is difficult to realize that a rainy day can be only twenty-four hours long.

It seems possible in prospect to do so many things in a rainy day. That well recommended volume which has lain so long on the library table awaiting a leisure hour—this very day its leaves shall be cut. And of course this is the ideal opportunity to finish that central column of unintermitted sunshine, then to awake in the morning to the music of the steady drip of rain outside the window and the gratefully subdued, cheerful melancholy light of a rainy morning?

Then there is the rich sense of seclusion which a rainy day begets. For my part, I somehow like this to be as pronounced as possible. Even the visits of the storeman and the milkman seem unwarrantable intrusions, and although I thoroughly enjoy a friend once she is domiciled, I must say I rather resent her first appearance as a kind of cheapening of my precious seclusion.

Of course, I am not unaware of the bolder joy of getting suitably garbed and sallies defiantly forth in the rain to smell the growing things and catch their spirit, and get one's hair wet and lungs well washed, but this is a pleasure that I am more apt to appreciate the second or third day of a rainy spell after I have had my fill of the delights of seclusion.

The difference in flavor between the rainy day and the snowy day is an interesting psychological distinction. There is begotten of both a sense of seclusion, but on the snowy day it is a jolly, hilarious seclusion of the whole family—all friends shut out, the housemates sit around the radiant fireplace enclosed in a tumultuous privacy of storm. Whereas, on the rainy day one's retirement is more individual and has more of a subdued and dreamy flavor. On the snowy day we make molasses candy, or play games with the young folks, or pop corn. On the rainy day we rummage around in the garret, or sort out old letters, or dream over a book, preferably an old friend with whom we have communed many times before. I know a girl who reads "Little Women" every rainy day and my own "Grandford" is indissolubly associated with the sound and smell of a rainy afternoon.

MARKETING FOR THE HOME.

In a large number of homes the marketing problem is left to chance, not much thought or planning given to it. Most housewives have a certain amount to spend and often it is either a feast or famine in such an unorganized arrangement.

Experience is indeed a dear teacher, and she is wise who learns early how to use the household money wisely.

Haphazard buying is most extravagant and a few lessons in useless buying is usually enough. Marketing is a household science and the buying of meats is one of extreme importance. We are passing the time when it is considered parsimonious to be called economical and to take pride in being unpractical.

One of the first things for a woman to learn in buying is to regulate her wants to fit her purse. It takes real self denial to deny ones self the attractive delicacies, and confine herself to the urgent needs of the family, even shopping and marketing will develop self-control and character.

The woman who pays her bills promptly will get better service every time from her merchant, for if he has to wait indefinitely for bills to be paid he is apt to charge interest by adding a cent here or there which in a month or two swells the bills considerably.

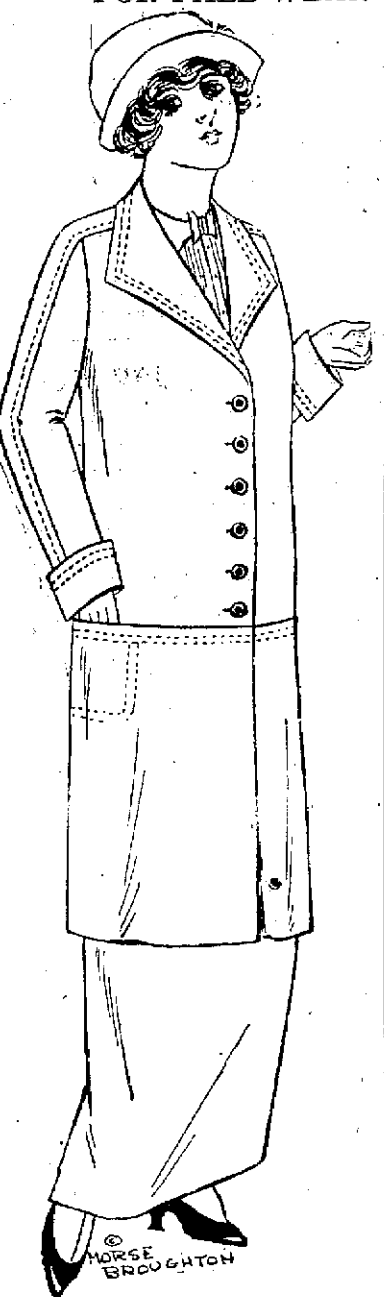

The ready money to the merchant means a great deal, for his accounts must be settled promptly if he gets good and prompt returns from the big markets.

A prepared list made out before going out to market will help one to keep within limit as some women want to buy every thing they see and memory fails them of the necessities if a list is not at hand.

Another way market men even with a slow paying customer, is to send second rate articles and charge first prices. So it pays to be prompt with the paying of bills.

When buying meats see that it is of good bright color and well marbled with fat. The weight is a good test for fruits like oranges, lemons and grape fruit. Perishable foods should never be bought in large quantities.

NATTY COAT
FOR FALL WEAR

This natty three-quarter length coat is excellent for rainy or heavy weather. The coat is fastened down the front with novelty buttons of pearl and bone. The yoke sections extend down along the sleeves and extend beneath the cuffs of the material. The lower portion of the coat is set on the upper, and is finished with stitching, and the deep inside pockets at each side are outlined with stitching.

Years ago, in the beginning of homes and home-making, the husband went forth to kill game and brought it home where the wife was ready to cook and serve it. Later it was tilling the soil and having things grow which by the good housewife were made into appetizing dishes for the family. She also had time then to spin the yarn and make their clothes.

Civilization and progress have taken much of this labor from the home. From the making of candles and care of lamps we have come to turning on a button and behold, electric light. From the rags which were sewed and braided into rugs and later woven into carpets we have everything that can be manufactured in rugs and carpets outside of the home. All necessary labor is made wonderfully easy through labor-saving devices. The cleaning and cooking, while schools and lectures over a large part of our country are training our daughters and mothers for greater efficiency in their home.

The large bakeries do much for us, the real essentials of our life, the cooking has not been taken from the home kitchen. The true meaning of all this is community life, and perfect happiness and health only come through each one doing the duty or work intended for them.

Must Use Brains. If this cooking, which is the "Road to Men's Hearts," is looked upon as an art, a science, knowing how, what greater thing could women aspire to? No one believes these days that a woman should cook and wash and scrub and clean all day outside interests. Not by any means, but she must use her brains and think of the best and quickest ways in her cooking. Every woman should have at least a single fireless cooker. Why have a ham, tongue or corn beef using up gas and the housekeeper watching it on the stove, when a fireless will do the work better with no fuel and no watching? That is where brains count.

Girls, learn to cook! Not just make fudge and angel creams, but learn to use foods of all, and which are best for you or your husband; if he comes home after a day's hard work, whether from the field or an office, what is it about him which has kept the old saying for centuries on our tongues: "The way to a man's heart is through his stomach?"

What caused the famous reply of Mary Livermore when a woman wrote her and asked what to do for the bad temper of her husband and she replied, "Feed the brute!" Nothing but a recognition in each instance of our overworked, tired, cross man and when properly fed, the physical side rebounded and he was physically, mentally and morally recuperated.

Saved from Drink. An entire year I directed all the lunches which a devoted wife cooked and carried to her husband's office. Every dinner was planned and cooked by her to lessen his desire for drink. This was done without his knowledge, and we both lived to see the day when that desire was a thing of the past and all with a knowledge of foods, their combinations and careful preparation of the same.

Any woman can win a man and draw him into the "happy" life she desires, but it is another thing to keep him there. Don't tempt him with all the good things to eat before marriage and then expect to hold him by careless, indifferent cooking. "Man cannot live by bread alone," but it is a very essential asset in keeping out of the divorce court.

Household Hints.

Things Worth Knowing.

To keep tins from rusting, place them near the heat for a little while after they have been washed.

To remove finger marks from varnished furniture, use a piece of soap.

New potatoes will scrape very easily if they are put to soak in water in which a small piece of common soda is put; also they will not soil the fingers.

Brighten carpets, wipe them with warm water in which has been poured a few drops of ammonia.

The Table.

Lyonnaise Eggs.—Put into a frying-pan or the chafin-dish blazer two tablespoonfuls of butter or olive-oil. When hot add two tablespoonfuls of minced onion and one tablespoonful of parsley and fry until the onion is light yellow. Add a tablespoonful of flour and one cupful of milk or good broth. When smooth and creamy add four sliced hard-boiled eggs, and serve on toast as desired.

Cabinet Pudding.—Butter a quart mold and sprinkle with sugar. Mix raisins, cherries, and citron, one-half pound of all, and place the fruit in alternate layers of sliced of stale sponge cake to fill the mold. Bake three eggs well with one-half cupful of sugar, add one pint of milk, and one-half teaspoonful of salt. Pour over the pudding, set the mold in a pan of hot water, and bake for one hour. Serve hot with a hot pudding sauce.

One quart can of peaches, two cupfuls of milk, four beaten eggs, one cupful of flour, one teaspoonful of baking powder, one cupful of sugar, one tablespoonful of melted butter, one-quarter teaspoonful of salt. Mix the flour and sugar together, add salt, baking powder, melted butter, the beaten eggs, the milk and the peach juice. Beat hard for four minutes, pour over the peaches in a buttered pudding-dish, bake a rich brown color and serve with cream.

Five Bread.—One pint of rye flour, one heaping tablespoonful of shortening, one tablespoonful of salt, one cupful of molasses, three pints of boiling water, one yeast cake, some flour. Mix together the rye flour, the white flour, shortening, salt and molasses and beat well. Add the boiling water, stirring thoroughly, and set aside to cool. Take the molasses cup—without rinsing—all half full of lukewarm water, crumble in the yeast cake, and when the first mixture is cool enough, add the dissolved yeast cake enough white flour to make a stiff dough. Set to rise over night, stir down in the morning, divide into buttered tins, allow to rise, and bake for three-quarters of an hour in a moderate oven.

Parsnips a la Francaise.—Three or four parsnips, a little lemon juice, one egg some bread crumbs, and one tablespoonful of chopped parsley. Peel and wash the parsnips, and if large, cut in half; cook in plenty of boiling water, containing a little salt and lemon juice. When tender, lift out and drain well, brush over with well-beaten egg, roll in crumbs and put on a greased baking pan in a hot oven to brown quickly, sprinkling with the parsley. Dish in a pyramid and serve with melted butter sauce. For the sauce, melt one heaping tablespoonful of butter in a sauce pan, stir in one tablespoonful of flour until smooth, then add gradually a quarter of a pint of milk, a quarter of a pint of cream, stir until boiling, add a dust of pepper, a few drops of lemon juice, and a little salt. Rub through a fine sieve.

Every Day Talks for Every Day People

By FRANCES JOYCE KENNEDY.

It is generally thought that cheese is hard to digest. In reality it is as easily digested as meat and has about twice its muscle making value.

One ounce of cheese is equivalent to one egg, a glass of milk, or two ounces of meat. The chance to economize in its substitution for meat, in these days of high prices, should not be lost sight of by the thrifty housewife.

From a scientific standpoint cheese and crackers with fruit and a prepared cereal form a well balanced ration.

There is economy in cooking cheese dishes, for they may be prepared with skimmed milk or water, as they contain more fat than meat dishes.

Housekeepers should plan to diminish other fat foods in meals where cheese dishes are the chief features. Rare bread is always good with cheese as cheese if raw or cooked is apt to be soft.

Here is a recipe that, made with skim milk and without butter, has a food value slightly in excess of a pound of baked one-half with potatoes. It can be made for less than twenty-five cents. 1 tablespoonful of butter, 1 tablespoonful of chopped green pepper, 1/2 cup of flour, 2 cupfuls of milk, 1 cupful of grated cheese, 1 cupful of grated cheese, 1 egg, 1/2 teaspoonful of salt. Melt the butter and cook the pepper thoroughly in it. Make a sauce out of the flour, milk, and cheese; add the corn, cheese, egg yolk and seasoning; cut and fold in the whites beaten stiffly; turn in a buttered baking dish and bake in a moderate oven thirty minutes.

To make Cheese Biscuit: 2 cupfuls of flour, 1 tablespoonfuls of baking powder, 2 tablespoonfuls of lard, 1 scant cup of milk, 1/2 teaspoonful of salt, grated cheese to give desired flavor. Mix all the ingredients except the cheese as for baking powder biscuits. Roll thin, divide into two parts, sprinkle one-half with grated cheese, lay the other half of the dough over the cheese. Cut out with small cutter and bake.

Brown Betty with Cheese: Arrange in a deep, earthenware baking dish alternative layers of bread crumbs and thinly sliced apples. Season with cinnamon, a little clove if desired, and brown sugar. Scatter some finely shaved mild cream cheese

This Home-Made Cough Syrup Will Surprise You

Costs Little, but there is Nothing Better at Any Price. Fully Guaranteed.

Here is a home-made remedy that takes hold of a cough almost instantly, and will usually conquer an ordinary cough in 24 hours. This recipe uses a pint—enough for a whole family. You couldn't buy as much or as good ready-made cough syrup for $2.50.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, and set 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and add the Sugar Syrup. This keeps perfectly and has a pleasant taste—children like it. Breathe up the apple juice, it is slightly laxative, which helps end a cough.

You probably know the medical value of pine in treating bronchial asthma, bronchitis, spasmodic croup and whooping cough. Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in quaiacal and other natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this combination.

The prompt results from this inexpensive remedy have made friends for it in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada, which explains why the plan has been imitated often, but never successfully.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. Your druggist has Pinex or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

A Medical Book Free

By Dr. N. A. Goddard

Modern Methods of treating Chronic Diseases without Operation, has just come from the pen of Dr. Goddard the Milwaukee Specialist and is one of the most interesting as well as instructive little books the doctor has ever written.

If you are a sufferer from Appendicitis, Rupture, Gall Stone, Colic, Gout, or Chronic Diseases of a private nature, you should avail yourself of his offer to send you this valuable little book free simply for the asking. A postal will bring it to you, in a plain wrapper. Many so-called surgical diseases, have been proven to be curable by medical treatment, more safely, more easily and cheaply by modern medical methods than was believed possible a few years ago.

After you have read this little book, you can consult Dr. Goddard on his monthly visits to Janesville, free of charge and have the satisfaction of knowing that you have secured the expert opinion of a reputable specialist in these matters. If you have been advised to submit to an operation, surely do not fail to consult him before undergoing such an operation. His advice may save you many weeks of suffering, loss of time and expense, possibly your life. Dr. Goddard will be at the Myers Hotel, Janesville, Tuesday, Nov. 4th, and he makes no charges for a friendly visit. Hours 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.

it is generally recognized, and one hears much of this talk connected with discussion on the high cost of living, are not getting the returns from their land that they should. And the returns that they do get serve only to rob the soil of its fertility and no effort is made to replace the life which is ruthlessly taken from the ground in the incessant and old-fashioned farming methods.

It is charged that this is the case. It may be true in some places and in others the opposite may be true. However, the state legislature at its last session passed a law which was calculated to aid the farmer in his business; help him to adopt better methods; encourage him in the raising of pure-bred seed and grains, and in the raising of blooded stock; show him the errors of his present system and start him on the road to better conditions.

The law provides for the employment of a county supervisor of farm work who will travel about giving advice and instruction. He will be a competent man selected by the state college of agriculture and will be in close connection with the instructors at the Madison school. It will cost the county at least $1,000 to put the plan into operation and a slightly larger appropriation would doubtless be advisable to give it a thorough trial. The state will offer aid to counties adopting the plan.

Members of the Rock County Extension Association are anxious that the county board should take action in the matter making the necessary appropriation at the November session. It is claimed that conditions are such as to make the proposition feasible. The Gazette plans to give the whole matter some attention. Communications on the advisability of adopting the plan will be cordially received. First of all the provisions of the law should be understood. It is given in full below:

Section 1. There are added to the statutes eight new sections and three new subsections to read: Section 553a—1. For the purpose of aiding in the agricultural development of the several counties in the state, any county, excepting those in which county schools of agriculture are maintained, is hereby authorized, through its county board, to establish and maintain an agricultural representative in accordance with the provisions of this act.

Section 553a—2. It shall be the duty of such agricultural representative to advise and consult with individuals in reference to farm methods; to aid in the development and improvement of agriculture and country life conditions; to offer courses of instruction to young people and adults; to aid in the formation of cooperative enterprises; to promote better business methods among farmers; to give such assistance as possible in the development of agricultural teaching in the schools of the county, and any other work designed to promote agriculture or rural development of the county. It shall be his duty to keep in touch with all agencies in the state and elsewhere that will enable him to utilize the most improved knowledge in the furtherance of his work.

Section 553a—3. For the partial maintenance of agricultural development of such county under the supervision of such agricultural representative, authority is hereby given the county board to raise, by tax levy or otherwise, for periods of not less than two years each, such moneys as may be deemed sufficient to cover the share of the county in such work; provided, however, that in no case shall the amount appropriated by the county for this work be less than one thousand dollars annually; and provided further, that such moneys shall be disbursed by the county treasurer only upon orders of the county clerk which shall have been approved by the county agricultural representative.

Section 553a—4. To supplement the funds provided by the county for the agricultural development, state aid, in the sum of one thousand dollars annually, shall be given to each county in which the county board has made the required appropriation, and such aid shall be expended under the direction of the board of regents of the university of Wisconsin.

Section 553a—5. For the calendar year 1914, the county board shall be organized in not to exceed six months of the state and for the calendar year 1915 in not to exceed sixteen counties of the state.

Section 553a—6. Immediately after the county board has voted to establish the position of county agricultural representative and has provided the necessary money for the share of the county therefor, the county clerk shall send the application of such county to the dean of the college of agriculture for the appointment and establishment of such county agricultural representative. All applications from the several counties shall be so made prior to December 10 of each year, and the dean, as far as possible, in case the applications do not exceed the maximum limit of counties that can be provided for in this act, the board of regents shall select as soon as possible a properly qualified person to serve in each county. The board of regents shall recommend to the board of regents a list of counties not in excess of the maximum number authorized by this act, taking in consideration in making each selection the best interests of the agricultural welfare of the state.

Section 553a—7. Authority is hereby given the county training school board of any county in which an agricultural representative is established to enter into cooperation with the regents of the university with reference to the use of the county agricultural representative in connection with the agricultural instruction given in said county training school, subject to such rules and conditions as may be mutually agreed upon between said county training school board and the regents of the university.

Section 553a—8. In counties where the work of the county agricultural representative is not connected with the county training school, the county superintendent of schools in such county shall co-operate with the county agricultural representative in such way as best design to further the interests of this work in that county.

(Section 172—53. 22. There is annually appropriated on January 1st, beginning January 1, 1914, to the regents of the university, ten thousand dollars, payable from any moneys in the general fund not otherwise appropriated, for the carrying out of the provisions of sections 553a—1 to 553a—8, inclusive.

(Section 172—53. 23. There is annually appropriated on January 1, beginning January 1, 1915, to the regents of the university, sixteen thousand dollars, payable from any moneys in the general fund not otherwise appropriated, for the carrying out of the provisions of sections 553a—1 to 553a—8, inclusive.

(Section 172—53. 24. There is annually appropriated on January 1, beginning January 1, 1916, to the regents of the university, payable from any moneys in the general fund not otherwise appropriated, a sum sufficient to carry out the provisions of sections 553a—1 to 553a—8, inclusive.

Section 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
Approved July 10, 1913.

We pay our statements in princely sums and hand them all the luscious plums, and boast and love them; and when at last they gather to QUERE! die, we pile their granite DOINGS, shafts sky high, and weep above them. And when they're dead two years or one, and some one asks what they had done that really counted, we have to wrench our thought works loose if we'd recall to what the deuce their deeds amounted. We brag a lot about our schools, where knowledge lies around in heaps and slathers; and to the pedagogues we pay as much a year as in a day the statesman gathers. We hand the teachers charming words; we tell them they are peaches, birds, and honeycookers; we give them the kindest looks when they are tired of slates and books and kids and rulers. We split our nickels when we play them for the work that makes them gray while in their youth they were so bright. We treat the folks who train this boastful nation's heart and brain our record dirties. And when the teacher dies, some day, from having lived too long in play and river water, we do not loathe to erect to him a fitting monument, as we had ought to.

COMMITMENT LAW IS PRAISED BY SHERIFF

C. S. WHIPPLE GIVES ACCOUNT OF ITS PRACTICAL APPLICATION AT MEN'S CLUB.

HAS PROVED SUCCESS

Nearly One Hundred Prisoners Have Been Employed Under New Statute—F. F. Lewis Talks on Hawaii.

Forty-eight members of the Men's club of the Baptist church held their first meeting at the church dining room last evening and plans for the coming year were presented. After supper, Sheriff C. S. Whipple and F. F. Lewis addressed the members.

Sheriff Whipple confined his remarks to the work of his office, especially the new commitment law. "It is easy to get started on the wrong track, leading to bad habits, which are hard to break," said Mr. Whipple, "and when you get into bad habits, an individual begins to drift down stream toward the criminal class. Being a good fellow is oftentimes the start of a young man's downfall and he generally finds out the hard way. I have seen a man who has been in the county jail for some time, lead on by his urging pacemakers," explained the sheriff in accounting for the large number of criminals in any county.

"So far the commitment law has been a big success, and is one of the best statutes that the legislature of this state has passed. We have been successful in finding employment for those sentenced under this form of punishment. We have had 94 men employed, $146 has been paid to the county from the wages of those who had no one dependent upon them, the prisoners' families have received $554.29 and the cost $179.10."

"This law will have a tendency to stop the 'reneaders,' who formerly seemed anxious to be placed behind the bars and the jails have for long been an 'old soldiers' home' for the habitual drunkards and bums. When a working man went wrong under the commitment law, he was placed in the jail, and his family suffered. Now, he is given a chance to make good and it has been proved that men working under this law have enjoyed better financial results than when free. One prisoner personally requested me if he went wrong again to see that he was sentenced under the law as he had learned a lesson and during his term of confinement under commitment, his wife added money enough to start a bank account for a rainy day."

"Nearly everyone of the prisoners sent out come to me after serving their term and say that they will not work another chance to make their lives, for as long as they are forced to work, they want the money to spend themselves. Four have tried to escape, one of them was sent to Waupun for a year and the others confined on bread and water, so as to teach them and others a severe lesson."

"The only defect that I can find with this law is that during the first few months it will be a serious problem to find work for the prisoners. A county rock pile would solve this problem for the undesirable would not come back to break rocks for good and lasting criminals who have lost all sense of shame and respect for law, is the man that wants to be severely punished, and this law promises to decrease the number of such men. A man who has been in the next few years," closed the speaker.

F. F. Lewis, who spent several months in the early part of the year in the Pacific coast, and the Hawaiian Islands, gave an interesting talk on his experiences. A number of beautiful views to illustrate his lecture were thrown upon the screen and served to increase the value of the lecture. Mr. Lewis was impressed by the metropolitan character of Honolulu with its beautiful streets, its fine residence and monumental buildings, the cosmopolitan nature of the population, was a matter for remark as well as the hostile attitude which was in evidence in true American style. He described his side-trips to the volcano craters and had something to say of the beautiful scenery.

SPRINKLER SYSTEM FOR TWO FACTORIES

Modern Fire Protection System for Shirt and Overall and Lay-Watson Plaster Plants.

Work has been started on the installation of a fire protection system in the building on North Franklin street occupied by the Lay-Watson shoe factory and the Janesville Shirt and Overall Company.

A tank capable of holding thirty thousand gallons of water at two hundred and fifty pounds pressure will be placed on top of the cupola of the building and six inch pipes will convey the water throughout the two factories. Eighty hundred and forty heads will be placed in the building, the type used being of the whirling variety. On the caps of the heads, wax that will melt at a temperature of a hundred and fifty degrees is placed. In case of fire the wax melts and the rooms are promptly flooded. The work is being done by the General Fire Extinguisher Company of Chicago, and it is expected that it will take two months before the work will be completed.

George Pankhurst is removing one of the old landmarks of the village by cutting down a wild cherry tree by the roadside in front of his house. The oldest residents of the village tell of the planting of this row of trees, which is the best in the village, very early days of Orfordville.

M. D. Beebe is one of the busiest men in this section these days. He is running his elder mill almost night and day. It is many years since there was such an abundance of apples as this fall.

The people of the M. E. church are overhauling their heating apparatus and coming it in shape for the approaching cold weather.

A special, attached to No. 21, west bound, carrying a number of the railroad officials, passed through the village on Wednesday morning.

Marlin Johnson, who has been in poor health nearly all summer, has so far recovered as to be able to be upon the street on Wednesday. This was his first trip down town for several months. His many friends were pleased to greet him.

Two classes of men have been working overtime this week: the coal dealer and the man who has not potatoes yet to dig. The report, however, is that the recent heavy frost did not damage the potato crop as was feared.

FULTON

Fulton, Oct. 23.—Mrs. A. S. Reid died at her home here of paralysis on Thursday at 1:30 p. m. Mrs. Reid was born in Augusta, Maine, in 1832 and was united in marriage to Rev. A. S. Reid in Bloomington, Ill., in 1851, coming to Fulton with her husband in 1883 where he filled the pulpit in the First Congregational church for a number of years. She leaves a sister in Prairie du Sac, and a brother in Iowa, and a stepson, Archie, who made his home with her, to mourn her loss. The funeral will be held at the home on Friday at 1:30 p. m. Rev. Price, who formerly filled the pulpit here, officiating.

Mr. Andrew Ellefson and son, Freddie, went to Grundy Center, Iowa, last week.

Mrs. Schwoda is visiting in Chicago.

Sidney Bentley is out from Milwaukee for a few days.

Charles Ziemann, Jr., is visiting his brother and sister in northern Wisconsin.

Mrs. S. H. Bentley returned from Chicago where she has been visiting her sons and daughters the past two weeks.

Oscar Ellefson returned to Chicago to his work on Sunday.

FORTY YEARS AGO

Janesville Daily Gazette, Oct. 23, 1873.—On last evening a club was organized in the Town of Lima to be known as the Farmers' Club of Lima. Article 1 of the constitution states that the object of the club is to increase the information about agriculture and kindred subjects by means of discussions, addresses, essays, experiments, etc. To secure the co-operation of its members in such ways as thought advisable, regular meetings will occur once in two weeks. Communications from other clubs and farmers' associations are requested. S. G. Burdick is president. The judicious individual who attempted to borrow his wife's fan during a Koshkonong hunting expedition has been compromised with his family difficulties which ensued by the purchase of a two-story winter hat with a
